Competition Brief

Competition Title

Performing Arts

Competition Overview

Performing arts include a range of disciplines which are performed in front of a live audience, including theatre, music, and dance.

In this competition, competitors will have the opportunity to develop and demonstrate a variety of performance skills that are essential within the Performing Arts industries.

Entry Criteria

The competition is for those enrolled on a Performing Arts course studying on a level 2 or 3 qualification.

Entry capacity restrictions by organisation

Maximum of up to 1 team per organisation plus an additional 1 reserve team can be registered in case of absence.

Teams can be made up of 3 to 7 participants.

Brief

The theme this year will be ‘And what now?’

- You are required to work together to create a performance lasting a maximum of 10 minutes. The development of this must be learner led.
- The performance can combine existing text or song with own work.
- The performance can be a mix of the three disciplines, dance, singing and acting – it can include one or a combination of all of the above.
- Can include opportunities for both ensemble and solo elements.
- Performers must be able to carry any props on and off stage within the allotted total stage time.
- A wash lighting state will be provided at the host venue – (there will not be time for tech rehearsals prior to the competition on the day).
- This will take place in January 2023 at USW.

- Total stage time is 25 minutes. Points will be deducted for going over the time allocated. Consideration must also be given to set-up and stage times.
- You will be required to answer questions by the judging panel about the development of your performance, and will also receive feedback.

Competition Rules

Competition specific rules

The maximum number of teams each organisation may enter is three and teams must be made up of three competitors. The three teams scoring the highest points will be awarded first, second and third prize.

- No questions are allowed to be asked to judges if it is related to the tasks given.
- No material is allowed to be removed from the competition area unless specified
- Work collaboratively and communicate effectively
- Competition will start promptly as advertised. Any team that arrives late will only be able to take part at the judges' discretion.
- Mobile phones are to be switched off during the competition activity.
- Technical failure of equipment should be reported immediately to the judging panel/staff member. Additional time will be allocated if the fault is beyond the control of the competitor.
